CONTACT / INQUIRES

410 Noodlez, a black alternative rap artist from Baltimore, MD, blends Hip Hop with Alternative R&B and punk to craft a genre-defying sound that is both authentic and dynamic. With clean lyrics and electrifying energy, he's amassed millions of streams, charted singles, and landed features on major playlists like RapCaviar alongside artists such as J. Cole and Kendrick Lamar. His bold performances and compelling storytelling have captivated audiences, with standout shows at iconic venues like Nectar Lounge and Central Saloon. His grant-funded track Can't Let It Slide highlights his commitment to addressing housing injustice, earning recognition from organizations like Disability Rights Montana. With a rapidly growing fanbase and a bold punk-inspired aesthetic, 410 Noodlez continues to rise as a unique voice in alternative rap. He is currently booking performance dates for 2025.
